

Featured Performers

Baba Yaga's Stew: This trio of women brew up a pot of bubbling tunes and boiling improvisations, inspired by sounds from all over the world and rooted in American contra dance music. Lucia Thomas, on fiddle, oud, and banjo; Dianna Davis, on accordion, clarinet, and piano; and Janet Cramer on percussion kit. Their repertoire spans from Bulgaria to Peru, Thailand to South Africa. With fiery melodies, savory grooves, and sultry voices these ladies will share stories and songs from afar, celebrating the brilliance of traditional cultures and the passion of creation.

Hot Coffee Breakdown: Coming down from Louisville, Kentucky to play for us, Hot Coffee Breakdown serves up driving fiddle tunes with drums and awesome arrangements to keep the energy grooving! Tom Cunningham on fiddle; Kate Sanders on keyboard; and Luis de Leon, percussion and harmonica.

Timothy Klein is a well known caller, hailing from our own locale of Knoxville TN. We are excited to welcome Timothy as our featured caller for this year's Cabin Fever.

Sound by Jamie Platt who provides high quality sound reinforcement services for concerts, dances, dance camps, festivals, and special events in the Washington, DC-area and all around the Eastern US.

Where to Stay

Hotels:

We regret that we can no longer arrange housing with local dancers as most of our locals live 30min or more from the venue. There are many reasonable hotel accommodations nearby. Most of the booking sites offer discounted room prices.

Saturday Night

Twirly Swirly Fun. Bring your favorite dance clothes for the Saturday night Contra dance.
